1965 is a year we can all look back on with pride and devotion. Washington's spirit is not only built within her walls but carried within her students. This has been displayed through the graduating class of '65 and will be shown through all the graduating classes to come.

Handwritten note in blue ink:

Dedication

The Class of 1965 of Washington High School proudly dedicates the 1965 WASHINGTONIAN to Mr. Stuart Lane, Chairman of the Science Department.

We wish to thank Mr. Lane for devoting much extra time to the students. He is always considerate of special problems and is warm and friendly in his classes. His pleasant personality has greatly helped students learn and enjoy science courses.

To you Mr. Lane, the WASHINGTONIAN is respectfully dedicated.

WASHINGTON HIGH

The Big Game

The end of the twelfth year is traditionally thought of as the end of school and the beginning of what is called "life." If there is a major difference between the two periods, I do not know what it is. The stakes may be higher and the competition greater, but the basic rules will always remain the same. You will get out of life what you put into it. Your returns will be in direct proportion to the amount of your investment.

Life is not much different from a football game. Your ability, your drive, and your spirit will all contribute to winning—or losing—the game. Any coach will tell you that ability is only fifty per cent of the game. The desire to win seems to be the critical factor. More games are won by playing heads-up ball than by possession of superior ability, particularly when the ability is not matched by an equal desire to win.

For eighteen years you have been preparing to play the "big game." The time has arrived to give it everything you have. Play the game hard. Play it to win, but play it fair and square. In the end, I believe you will find life to be an enjoyable, productive experience.

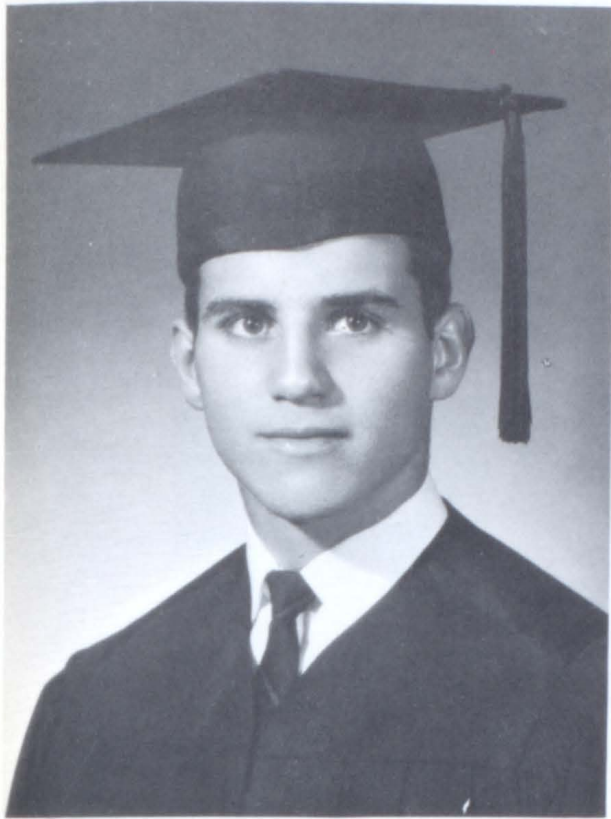

Good luck to all of you!

Robert L. Callahan

MR. BURKHART

Washington's first dramatic endeavor this year was the hilarious comedy, "Harvey." The story revolves around a six foot white rabbit. This was the first production directed by our new dramatic teacher, Mr. Burkhart. We hope that he will be bringing us more fine productions in the future.

Christmas Show

Whispers of a miracle were heard here at Washington on the week of December 16. Could it be the voices of angels echoing from our auditorium? No, it wasn't a miracle but the angelic music of Washington's choir directed by Mr. Thornburg and accompanied by the orchestra directed by Mr. Espeseth, our new music instructor. The exciting show ended with a one-act play presented by the Drama I class.

White

Kachoo!—and the lighthearted laughter of delighted children filled our auditorium as the advanced Drama class presented the year's Children's Show, the French version of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." The dwarf "Happy" symbolized the mood of the entire play.

This is how I feel after a year of U.S. History.

The musical presented this year by the fine arts department was the romantic comedy "Bells are Ringing." It is the story of a zany telephone operator who falls in love with a voice on the other end of the line.

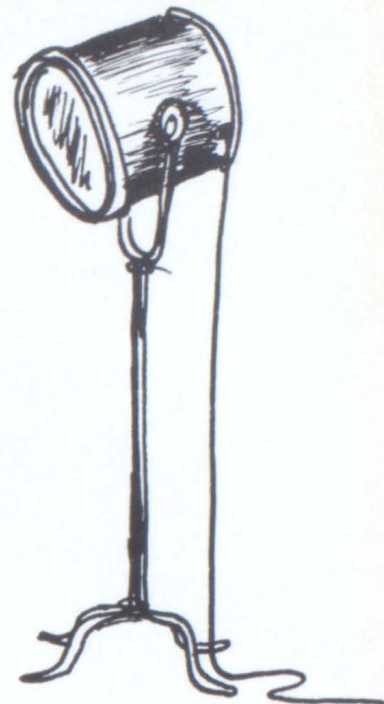

The alternate cast appeared in the second performance.

The audiences responded to all three performances with "ringing" applause.

Ann's home — Smedjebacken, Sweden

Ann and Siw boarding the ship to America.

ANN BARKSKOG was our foreign exchange student this year from Smedjebacken Sweden. Sponsored by the American Field Service, Ann has visited the United States for a year, during which time she stayed with Kathy Dawson and family.

Ann is a graduate student and will be attending a "gymnasium" next fall, which is similar to an American college.

Ann's twin sister, Siw, is also a foreign exchange student in the United States and is the guest of a family in Illinois.

When asked how she liked her stay here, Ann said, "I enjoyed it very much — the American people are so informal and friendly. I am especially glad I came to Washington High School this year."

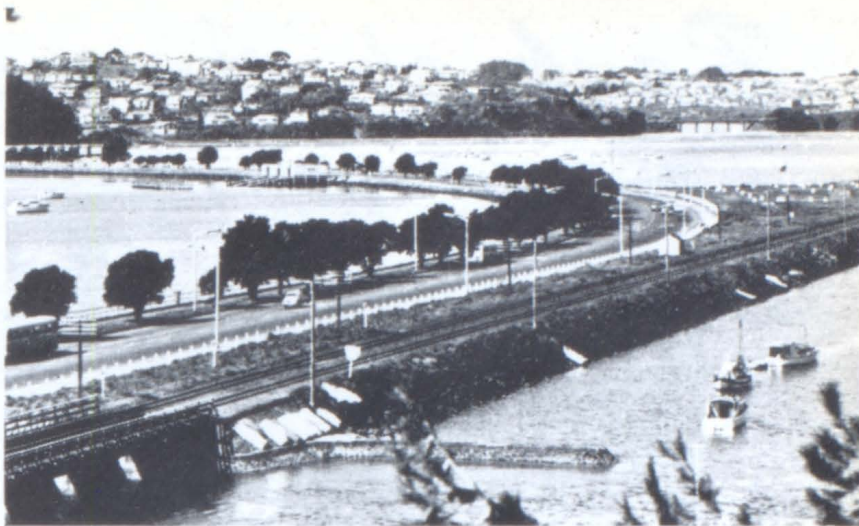

Foreign

A masquerade party on board.

This year Washington High was fortunate to have a visiting professor, DR. PAULO PADUANO. Dr. Paduano is a college teacher from Bolzano, Italy. As an exchange teacher under the Fulbright Act, he taught French and Latin here. He plans to return to Italy this summer "enriched by this valuable experience."

Auckland, New Zealand

SUE PRITCHARD traveled to New Zealand in December of 1963 as Washington's foreign exchange student.

Staying in the home of the Wood family in Auckland, Sue attended school at Epsom Girls' Grammar School.

Sue found there are general English words that are foreign to our American vocabulary.

While at school, she taught her classmates some Huskie yells and learned some native dances from them.

Washington was fortunate that Sue was able to return during the 1964-65 school year in order to share her memorable experience with us.

"Maturity—Its Privileges and Responsibilities" was the topic of this year's Lion's Club Speech Contest. Martha Doty, representing Washington High School at the local Lion's Club and at the Zone Contest, was twice a winner. The next step will take Martha to the Regional Contest. Top prize at the state level is a $1500 scholarship.

Native Sons Speech Contest

Sue Pritchard, Washington's winner in the Native Sons of the Golden West Public Speaking Contest, entered the Alameda County finals with a most fitting and appropriate subject: "California—Land of Paradise." The following is an excerpt from her speech: "This Golden State is the melting pot of the country. From the cotton plantations of the South, the tenant houses of the North, and the small towns of the Mid-west. They have all met in this paradise and have all become Californians."

This year the Washington Orators once again have become an active speech club whose main goal is to stimulate interest in all types of speech activity. The most prominent occasions this year were two Speech Festivals Washington co-sponsored with Newark High. Students performed in six categories: extemporaneous and impromptu speaking, dramatic and oral interpretation, original oratory and declamation. All high schools from Fremont, Newark, and Union City were invited to participate.

At the first festival ten of the sixteen student who represented Washington received outstanding and excellent ratings—a remarkable achievement.

Boy's State

Jeff Voorhees represented Washington at California Boys' State this year. Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion, is a practical experience in government. Each year 850 boys from all parts of California journey to the State Fair grounds in Sacramento to take part in a very worthwhile program for the education of youth. This first hand knowledge of the functions of government received at Boys' State is a valuable help to any future United States citizen.

Janice Kirk

D.A.R.

Janice Kirk received the Daughters of the American Revolution good citizen award this year. She and six other girls from the Bay Area were nominated by their schools for the award which was given by the Oakland Chapter of the D.A.R. Janice was chosen to represent the Oakland Chapter in the statewide D.A.R. contest and was awarded the D.A.R. good citizen pin and certificate. The statewide winner will receive a $100 bond and will go to the nationwide contest; the nationwide winner will receive a $1000 bond.

On June 19, 1964, twenty students from the Bay Area left from San Jose and traveled almost 2,000 miles to study for six weeks at the University of Veracruzana in Xalapa, Mexico. The students said, "Though we lacked some of the luxuries we have here, we were able to adapt ourselves to this new life. The way of life was a bit different from our own, but there will be many of us going back."

Xalapa is a fairly good sized town, located east of Mexico City.

A black and white studio portrait of a young woman, Carol Rañoa, identified as the Sports Queen. She is seated, facing the camera with a slight smile. She has dark hair styled in a short, rounded bob with bangs. On her head is a decorative tiara with a central floral or leaf-like motif. She is wearing a white, sleeveless, form-fitting dress with a subtle V-neckline. Her hands are resting on her lap, and she is wearing long, white, elbow-length gloves. A thin necklace with a small pendant is visible around her neck. The background is a light-colored, draped fabric, possibly a curtain, with soft folds and lighting. The overall tone is classic and formal.

"How beautiful is victory, but how dear," thus began the 1964 Husky venture to Championship. Training began for the gridders two weeks before school started. The Result—Victory! The Huskies copped the "Pop" Gould trophy twice from our arch-rival Logan and brought home the title of first MVAL League Champions to Huskyville

Highlights of the season were the Newark victory (when a tough line won us the championship) and a punt return by Terry Smith from the Washington 34 yardline for the tying touchdown; then a second chance PAT by Mike Kelly clinched the final victory at the Irvington game.

Honors didn't stop on the field. The Huskies boasted seven all-leaguers: Offense—Jeff Voorhees, Russ Ferguson, and Terry Smith; Defense—Jim Miller, Mike Kelly, and Jack Acosta, with Bob Arington garnering dual honors. Captains were Russ Ferguson and Jim Miller; outstanding lineman—Bob Arington; outstanding back—Terry Smith; most outstanding players—Jack Acosta and Russ Youngs; and most inspirational—Jim Miller.

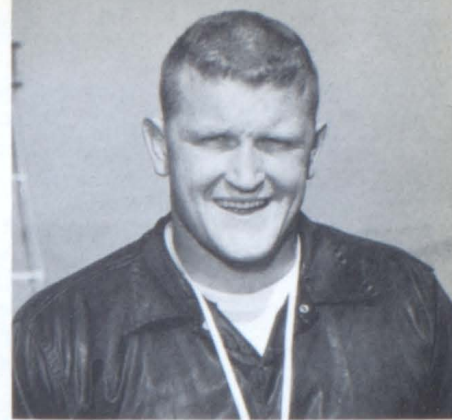

The finale of the season was our non-league game with highly rated St. Francis. Though the Huskies were overcome, teamwork and drive held the Lancers until the second half. This is the essence of a great ballclub and a moral victory for our "Champs."

STANDING: J. White, T. Banta, D. Rasmussen, J. Acosta, F. Golden, J. Miller, W. Blumer.

Under the direction of Coach Scholl, Washington High has fast become a powerhouse in the basketball circle. This year's team is noted for its defensive and offensive stars and its record. In the league the orange-and-black went undefeated to take the MVAL crown with a perfect record of eight wins and no losses. The team, also undefeated in the Logan Tournament, started the season slowly, gaining much needed experience and finished strong with an over-all record of 14 wins and 6 losses.

Among the outstanding players on Washington's basketball team are Jack Acosta (season captain), Dwight Rasmussen (junior forward), and Bob Jibson (junior guard). Rasmussen received all-league honors as a forward and was first in the league in scoring. Acosta, the team's leading rebounder, was fourth in scoring. Jibson, who burned the boards at the beginning of the season, finished in ninth place in league scoring. The two other standouts of the team were seniors Wayne Blumer and Tony Banta, who both saved many a game from defeat.

Next year's basketball season looks promising since Washington High will have returning lettermen Dwight Rasmussen, Bob Jibson, Craig Reading, and Jeff White. All have had plenty of experience in making a championship team.

Cross Country

This year's cross country season was more successful than it appeared. The win column shows only two varsity wins and several losses. The frosh-soph won four dual meets and handily stole the MVAL Championships.

More important, however, was the success of learning three valuable lessons which apply to athletics. First, to be a winner one must work year round; second, one must produce Quality work at all times; and third, one must stay with those in the front.

Varsity leaders were Co-Capt. Jim Rocca, Bill Barnhill, Terry Nielsen, Co-Capt. Floyd Trujillo, and Al Bice. Barnhill was selected as a member on the MVAL team.

The frosh-soph contingent was lead by Capt. Glen Albright, Al Hilberg, Ron Alonzo, Mike Roberts, and Tim Burruss. Albright, Hilberg, Alonzo, and Roberts were named on the MVAL Frosh-Soph team selections.

Coach Thompson

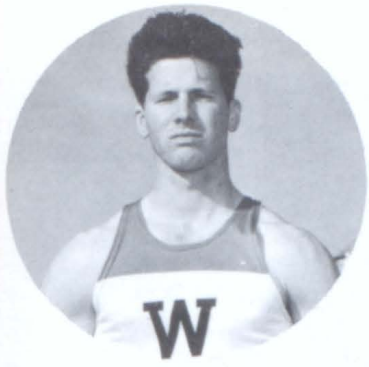

The Varsity track team, led by Coach Jerry Thompson, was a strong contender for the league championship. Coach Thompson accounts for the team's strength by its depth in the sprints, the high jump and the triple jump. Mike Silva and Mike George were invaluable to the team in the sprints and the relay. Marvin Oliver doubled in the triple jump and the 440, and Tony D'Andrea doubled in the low hurdles and the relay. Al Bice ran the 440 and the half mile. Outstanding in the field events were Reggie Mahler in the high jump, Mike McNulty in the pole vault, and Jim Faria in the long jump. Bill Barnhill and Oscar Rodriguez ran well in the distance events.

The B track team, which shows great potential for next year's varsity squad, heralds many fine athletes. The cream of the B athletes are spread among all of the events, making a strong team. The B's are probably strongest in the distance events where they have Glen Albright in the 660 and Al Hilberg and John Floco in the 1320. Floyd Trujillo and Benny Sinsay are the team's strongest athletes. Floyd high jumps, pole vaults and runs the low hurdles. Benny places strong in the sprints, the 330 and the relay. The team was also greatly aided by Ray Osborn in the hurdles Ray Pattiani in the shot put.

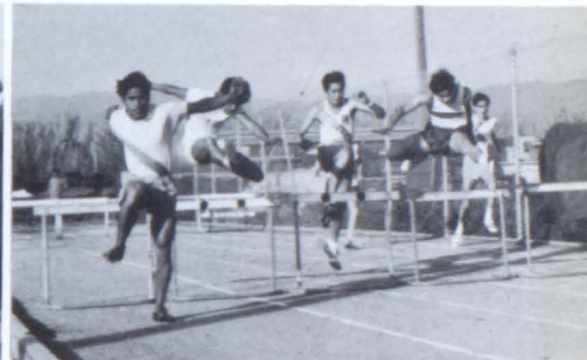

C Track

The C track team seems victory bound in the league with a number of outstanding athletes. Chris Bufkin is the squad's leading athlete, standing out in the sprints and the long jump. Emmanuel Arca is a strong point getter, placing well in the high jump, hurdles and sprints. Ronnie Alonzo, the team's fine distance runner, is expected to go undefeated in league competition. Bob Birdwell is shooting for a school record in the pole vault.

The mighty midgets of Washington's track team, the D's, boast of many fine athletes. Dennis Chittle leads the field of sprinters. Terry Dillard and Rick Wolfard both look good in the long jump and low hurdles. Ken Allen is the weight man of the team, doubling in the shot put and pole vault. The D relay team appears to be one of the finest in school history. Early in the season they tied the school record with a fine clocking.

The 1964 Varsity Water Polo team, under the coaching of Mr. Eustis, ended the season winning three games and losing nine.

The team worked hard and well together, but the lack of size and experienced players hurt the team's standings.

Selected as most valuable player was the team captain, Frank Gygax. Other outstanding performances were given by Dave Richardson, Richard Johnson, and Jeff Nelson. Coach Eustis is looking forward to a more successful season next year with the return of these lettermen.
